

RAIN BREAKS DROUTH

Mrs. Emma Rothe, D'Hanis Pioneer, Succumbs Saturday

D'HANIS—Mrs. Emma Rothe, prominent D'Hanis citizen and widow of a pioneer rancher, passed away unexpectedly in her sleep on Saturday, Sept. 8, 1951. She had reached the age of 87 years, 10 months and 11 days.

Mrs. Emma Sauter Rothe was born at Fort Lincoln on Oct. 28, 1863, the daughter of Gertrude and Jacob Sauter. She was married to August Rothe in D'Hanis on Nov. 8, 1883, and shared the early hardships of early days and lived to enjoy the successes during her first years of marriage when she and her husband lived in the Rothe Brothers original ranch headquarters.

Some 60 years ago the family moved to the present home on the Rio Seco farther north. Mrs. Rothe always preserved a spirit of friendliness and charity.

Survivors include three daughters, Miss Tina Rothe and Mrs. Herman Ney of D'Hanis and Sister Mary Margaret, formerly Meta Rothe, of Santa Rosa Hospital, San Antonio; one son, Eric A. Rothe of D'Hanis; one sister, Mrs. Louis Richter of D'Hanis; one brother, Joe Sauter of San Antonio; 22 grandchildren; 29 great-grandchildren; and 1 great-great-grandchild.

Her husband passed away May 1914, and she was also preceded in death by a son, Guenther, in 1923, and a daughter, Mrs. John (Emmie) Finger in 1944. Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Monday morning from the home and at 9:30 in Holy Cross Church, D'Hanis, with Rev. H. V. officiating. Interment was at the Catholic Cemetery in D'Hanis.

Funeral bearers were her grandsons, Lawrence Rothe, Howard Rothe, Joe W. Rothe, Herman Finger, August Finger, and Jerome Finger. Three other grandsons served in the sanctuary: John Rothe, John Ney and Tommy Finger.

Housing Needed For Instructors

About 40 more flight instructors are expected to arrive in Hondo Monday, and houses and apartments for them will be needed. Mrs. Nell Richter, in charge of housing at Hondo Air Base, announced.

Mrs. Richter asks all persons having or knowing of housing accommodations to get in touch with her.

The city is continuing its efforts to secure a housing project at the former Navigation Village. Mayor Bob Kollman reports. Recent law was signed by President Truman provides housing in critical areas, but the Federal Housing Authority is awaiting interpretation of the law before taking action.

Several persons have contacted the city in regards to building houses on the property, but action is expected until the F. H. A. makes a ruling. An interpretation of the new law may be made in the next week or ten days. Kollman stated.

Baptist Meeting Termed A Success

DEVINE—The all-day meeting held at the Baptist Church Sunday was pronounced successfully by those attending. Sunday school classes had an attendance of 279, and an estimated 500 persons overflowed the church for the morning worship.

A covered dish meal was served at noon hour to take care of the large crowd. Following the dinner and fellowship hour, ground-breaking ceremonies were held on the site for the new building with Rev. Don Rose, pastor, in charge.

A representative from each of the 17 churches departments turned a spadefull of dirt. A number of out-of-town people were in attendance.

Memorial services will be held for Sgt. William Bryant Sumner Friday night at 7:30 at the Hondo Methodist Church. Sgt. Sumner was killed in defense of his country in Korea on Aug. 10, 1951.

Hondo Instructor Predicts Great Things For Band

A prediction that Hondo will have a band before long of which every citizen can be proud was made Wednesday by Alfred Sturchio, band instructor at Hondo High School. Sturchio said that his group of students were coming along fast and that in three or four months would be ready to perform in public.

Speaking before the Hondo Lions Club, Sturchio listed two points of importance for a band. First is its performance at athletic events and at public gatherings, and second is its participation in interscholastic league contests.

"Music is the soul of everything," the band leader said. "Nearly everywhere you go, music plays an important part." To the children, learning music is not work, but is play and pleasure.

Sturchio's father is head of the University, where the local teacher attended school under a music scholarship. He told the Lions that many students are able to attend colleges and universities without cost under band scholarships.

Sturchio explained how a band is organized and the fundamentals which students needed to know. He asked parents to be patient and to co-operate in every way possible in order that students might be able learn their lessons well. He spoke of the enthusiasm shown by the children, and said that many come before school opens to practice or practice during the noon hour to supplement the usual hour band period.

"Playing in the band isn't sissy," the bandmaster emphasized, "and boys can take part in both athletics and music." Sturchio himself, formerly played baseball and football. "No one has ever called me a sissy," he smiled, then added, "and gotten away with it."

Sturchio explained briefly about interscholastic league contests which bands might enter, comparing them to playoffs for athletic awards. First year bands are always classified as Class D, although after the first year, Hondo will compete with other Class A schools.

The band instructor said that some interest had been shown for organizing a municipal band and said that he would be glad to help with one if enough people desired it.

Over Two Inches Falls Near Hondo

Gentle rains which started falling about 2:30 Thursday morning broke the three-month drouth that parched pasture lands and caused serious water shortages over the entire state of Texas.

Yancey School Starts With Annual Picnic

Yancey school opened this week with its traditional annual picnic, and some 170 people were on hand.

A meeting was held in the auditorium, and announcement was made of the additions of Mrs. Eva Farber as primary teacher, Lewis Mattingly as agriculture instructor, and Rev. D. D. Hogan as substitute teacher. Supt. Alvin Robinson spoke briefly concerning the coming school year.

Mrs. Ernest Wiemers was elected as president of the Parent-Teacher Association for the year, succeeding Mrs. Philo Crain.

Mrs. Rebbie Franklin closed the meeting with a benediction.

Enrollment for the new year has not been announced, although some 21 students have transferred to the Hondo Independent School District. The resignation of at least one member of the board of trustees, Marvin Muennink, has been accepted.

A report on the Yancey school situation has been received by the board from the State Department of Education in which steps are listed by which the Yancey school can regain full accreditation. At a meeting last week, the board voted to publish the report, although the action was recinded at a later meeting.

Yancey's accreditation has been in the state of suspension since the resignation of the past board. Until full accreditation is restored, students graduating at Yancey may not enter colleges or universities without taking special examinations. The state department expects to investigate in a few months to see if proper steps have been taken to restore accreditation.

Liquor Violation Brings $100 Fine

Libario Ibarra was fined $100 and costs in county court last week for permitting intoxicated persons on a licensed premises. Arrest was made by the State Liquor Control Board.

In justice court, Arthur A. Greer was fined $1 and costs for speeding; Andres Garcia and Marcos Hernandez, $5 and costs for disturbing the peace; David Ramos and Rogelio Carmona, $1 and costs for disturbing the peace; and Louis George Smasal was charged with speeding.

Judge H. E. Haass and Roy A. Carter was 2.30 inches, Haass' reading taken at 7 o'clock and Carter's at 7:30.

The gauge at the Anvil Herald office showed 2.60 inches at 9 A. M.

The rain on Thursday, coupled with showers during the week, indicated that the drouth was broken at last. During the past 60 days, Judge Haass has reported only 0.36 inches, and the last rain of any consequence occurred in May when many areas were flooded by a cloudburst that did little good.

While Hondo has not suffered from water shortage, Homer Wilson, manager of the water system, said that the water level in the city wells had fallen 20 feet during the year and now stood at the lowest level in his memory. More water has been consumed, Wilson said, but a good rain on the Edwards Plateau would replace that used.

Reports throughout the state indicated that the rain this week was general in nature, and should greatly relieve conditions brought on by the drouth.

Winter Legume Seed Assistance Made Available

V. P. King, chairman, Medina Co. P. M. A. Committee, announces that assistance on winter legume seed through the P. M. A. will be made available to the farmers and ranchers on Monday, Sept. 17.

He points out that winter legume seeds must be properly inoculated with fresh inoculants, seeded not later than Dec. 1, 1951, and planted on land that has a 20% phosphate application of not less than 200 lbs. per acre, except on land that had phosphate applied within such time that the residual effects are still available. Also, the crop must not be harvested for hay, or grazed to an extent that will prevent the maintenance of a good protective cover at all times. Seed may be harvested from all winter legumes except Austrian winter and Dixie Wonder peas.

He explains that farmers must secure written approvals of the county committee before seeding these legumes, and report performance on this same approval when a good cover is established and in all cases not later than the date set by the county committee. Sales tickets or other supporting evidence must be submitted for seed purchased unless it was obtained as C. M. S.

Natalia, LaCoste To Open Seasons Friday

The Natalia Mustangs open their 1951 football season against the LaCoste Eagles on the local field Friday night at 8:00 P. M. This will be the first game of the season for both teams, so both are unknown quantity. Both teams lost heavily by graduation last year, but there are several lettermen and squadmen returning about which Coach Crash Stewart of LaCoste and Coach Le Roy Haak of Natalia have built well binced teams.

Coach Haak has indicated his probable starting line will acerage about 160 pounds and his backfield 135 pounds.

Probable starting lineup for the Mustangs will find Donald Pritchard and Gene Morris at ends; Paul Kohlleppe and Tomy Evans at takles, Billy West Crawford and William Jo Whitley at guards James Rooke at center; Edwin Whitle at quarterback, Deauwayne Hamilton and Jack Burns at half backs, and James Morris at fullback.

St. Louis Comets Schedule Told

CASTROVILLE—Schedule for the St. Louis Comets for 1951 has been announced as follows: Sept. 21, at Jourdanton; Sept. 28, Car-rizo Springs; Oct. 5, St. Gerards at San Antonio; Oct. 12, St. Josephs of Victoria; Oct. 19, at Edgewood; Oct. 26, St. Josephs of Laredo; Nov. 2, St. Josephs of Brownwood; Nov. 9, at Natalia; Nov. 16, Sacred Heart at Hallets-ville; and Nov. 25, LaCoste.

All Star Game Plans Being Made By Jaycees

Plans for the annual football game between the Hondo All Stars and Southwest Texas Junior College of Uvalde were made by the Hondo Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night.

The game will be played at the high school field in Hondo on Saturday night Oct. 6.

Pete Knowles will again be in charge of the arrangements com-mittee and asks that players con-tact him if they want to sign for the game. Billy Fly heads the ticket committee.

Funds raised for the ball game will go to the band fund. In pre-vious years, proceeds were used to start a public library, and last year the band also received the gate receipts.

The All Stars hold a 2-0 record over the Uvalde junior college. Two years ago, the locals triuph-ed 3-0 with G. H. Finger's field goal the difference. Last year, Hondo copped a 19-0 victory, led by Roy Kile. The All Star aggre-gation is coached by Tom Bridges, high school mentor.

Knowles expects to secure the services for about 33 players for this year's contest. Tickets, which will go on sale next week, will be $1.20 for adults, and 75c for students and servicemen in uni-form.

Flyers, Horses Softball Winners

The Hondo Flyers and Magnolia Red Horses won games Mon-day night in Hondo Softball League play. The H. A. B. won by forfeit from D'Hanis, while Magnolia downed Purina 13-10.

Purina took a first inning lead, 4-0, but Magnolia counted three times in their half of the frame and tied the score at 4-4 in the fourth. A four-run fifth inning gave the Horses the margin, even though Purina knotted the score at 8-8 in the sixth.

The game was decided in the last of the sixth on Heiligman's three run homer, and Ahr's four-bagger added a pair of insurance runs. Purina fought back in the last frame for two runs, includ-ing M. Zerr's second homer of the game, but failed to keep the rally going.

Owls Play At Cotulla Friday Night At 8

Hondo's Owls journey to cot-ulla Friday night at 8 to engage the Cotulla Cowboys, and outcome of the game will be anyone's guess as both teams lost heavily via graduation from last season and have not been tried to date.

Coach Tom Bridges has an-nounced a probable starting line-up consisting of Harold Schweers and Clyde Schulte at ends; Doug-las Bohmfalk and Johnny Graff, at tackles; Morton Mechler and Floyd Saathoff, at guards; Larry Wright, at center; Lloyd Muen-nink, blocking back; Felix Alderete, wingback; O. J. Williams, tailback; and Johnny Faseler, full-back.

The Owls' defense suffered this week when Lloyd Lindeburg, rangy end, received an injury in scrimmage and Bridges says the big fellow probably won't see action this week.

Defensevely, John Henry Neu-man, Manuel Gonzales and others will be used.

Cotulla wound up in third place, just below Hondo, in last year's district race. Like the Owls, they lost heavily to graduation and must rely on young boys.

Bridges indicated that his line-up might be shifted before and during the game to find the right combination before entering dis-trict play against Boerne on Oct. 5.

D'Hanis Cowboys To Open Against Knippa

After a lapse of several years the D'Hanis and Knippa schools will renew grid rivalry Friday night at Sabinal. What promises to be a good game will get under way at 8 o'clock.

The Knippa Rockcrushers are one of the few six-man football teams in this area to be ahead of the Cowboys since their rival-ry started five years ago.

Claude Burks, a promising back will be out of action for several weeks with a badly injured finger.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Easy Makes His "Cat" Tread Lightly

Driving home on Three Ponds Road yesterday, I was flagged down by Easy Roberts' boy Skeeter. "Take it slow," he advised. "Dad's crossing this road with our tractor, just beyond the bend."

Around the curve I saw why Skeeter stopped me. Easy had laid two rows of old truck tires across the road, and was driving his new "Cat" tractor over this way.

"More trouble this way," Easy explains, "but it does keep those tank tracks from tearing up the asphalt when I have to cross over to our other fields. After all, the roads belong to all of us—and guess I'd get mad if someone chewed them up."

From where I sit, Easy is my kind of citizen. He doesn't just pro-democracy lip service. He honestly believes it's his duty to consider the other fellow's interests. Whether it's the right to use the public highways or the right to enjoy an occasional glass of beer, Easy's out to protect his neighbor's "right of way."

BUT IN THE PAST

"Highwater on The Medina!"

And wouldn't you like to see all our streams and tanks again full to capacity with water?

But no floods, please?

The original photograph from which the accompanying cut was made belongs to Mr. Otto M. Naegelin of Castroville who loaned it to this paper for this purpose.

According to Mr. Naegelin, the people especially older women splashing through the water going up on the mill hill (sand hill) and to cross hill. A young boy by the name of Bell drowned somewhere close where the Diversion dam is I think. I thought perhaps you would like to make a write up about the high water for Hondo Anvil. My Father, Peter Jungman, was in the Store business at the time and we carried some people to the hill in the peddle wagon.

Your friend,
ALEX E. JUNGMAN

At the time of this flood, the writer was just beginning his more than fifty years of connection photograph was made on May 10, 1897, following a heavy rain on the day before over the hilly drainage area of the river north and northwest of Castroville.

High Water On The Medina

The scene is taken from the left bank, looking up stream and some distance below the old ford crossing on the highway.

The outline of the old mill dam is traceable a little above the center of the picture but almost obscured by the flood-water pouring over it.

Courand's mill and gin, near the west end of the dam and a little further to the left as you look at the picture, is hidden from view by the trees lining the bank of the river.

Mr. Naegelin identified the four cowboys on horseback and facing the camera as Hy Naegelin, Ed Mangold, Seb. Marty and Ed Sittre, neither of whom are now living.

The waders, in the shadow of the trees to the left, are not identified.

From time immemorial possibly and certainly since the advent of the white man on its banks, not only has the Medina Valley but this entire area of Southwest Texas been subject to intermittent drouths and not too infrequent floods.

During the little more than seven years, from March 24, 1896, to October 10, 1903, during which the writer lived in or near Castroville, he saw several rises in the Medina.

It was a thrilling scene to stand safely on the river bank and watch the flood water, when not quite so high as that shown at the time this picture was made, toss heavy logs and other drift over the dam and see them caught in the back wash of the falls and pitch and toss in the seething, foamy water before being caught in the current and floated away all battered and bruised.

But we are reminded of the time of the record-breaking flood of 1900 when the water poured over the dam in such volume as to leave no trace of the dam at the surface of the water, such as is plainly visible in the accompanying cut.

The accompanying card brought this occasion to mind, as follows:

LaCoste, Texas, July 16, '51.

Dear Mr. Davis:

As today is the Anniversary of the big Medina River Flood July 16th, 1951 exactly fifty-one years ago when the flood water ran through Castroville there was a wide stream right behind St. Louis Catholic church. I was a little boy at the time but will never forget it. I remember older with this paper—then The Castroville Anvil—and from the files of that time we quote the following extracts from his report of the occurrence:

"Monday, July 16, 1900, will belong remembered as a record-breaking day for high water by the inhabitants of the Medina Valley.

"Saturday night, it began to rain. It kept up in desultory showers during Sunday, growing heavier. The downfall here was not excessive. Late in the evening vivid lightnings were to be seen far towards the north, and a heavy electrical cloud could be discerned by the flashes. Still no apprehension was felt here. The Medina river rose a few feet during the night and then fell again. A second rise began about 10 o'clock. People who have resided along the river bank during a long lifetime never saw it rise so rapidly. Immense quantities of timber floated by. Whole stacks of hay drifted down, thousands of tons being lost. Fragments of buildings, articles of furniture, fences, etc. were to be seen. Lots of livestock, horses, cattle and fowls were drowned and swept guardward by the raging torrent.

"But the greatest excitement prevailed when the cry was raised: 'It is breaking out at Holzhausen'. Castroville is situated in a big bend on the bank of the river. The land slopes from the river bank towards the foot of the hills where it is some five or six feet lower, forming a depression clear across the bend which must, at some time in the remote past, have been the river's bed. Mr. August Holzhausen lives on the bank of the river at the head of this depression and it was here that, for the first time in the history of its settlement, the water found its way into the town. It came first through the street, then widening across his yard and garden, and reached a depth of two feet in his house. Most of the people of the town beat a hasty retreat to the neighboring hills."

Not all abandoned the town, however, and among those who braved it out was this writer. He saddled a big horse and rode about the town to watch developments. As soon as it was determined that the river had begun to fall, he rode across the inundated area to take the glad news to the refugees up on the hillside. Though the water fell rapidly and he was riding a horse nearly six-feet high the water came almost to his stirrups when he crossed the lowest ground on the street about two blocks below where the

Macdona Members Attend Rifle Match

Members of the Macdona Shooting club who attended the annual small bore rifle match at New Braunfels last Sunday were E. W. and Josephine Garrett, Richard and Rose Biediger, W. P. and Julia Geiger, C. M. and June Oualline, Arthur J. and Louisa Vogt, Ed Bachle and Gary Frantzen.

Richard A. Biediger made the highest individual offhand score in the match, with a score of 116 points.

Macdona offhand team took second place, being defeated by New Braunfels by four points for first place. W. P. Geiger was next to Biediger with 114, and L. Manade ran 112. Bachle scored 107 and E. W. Garrett trailed with 102.

In the rest team all the men had an off day. The only high score was made by Geiger with 244, and that was the lowest score in the match.

On Sept. 23, the Small Bore Rifle Association of Texas will hold the trophy match for the 1951 season, and this will close all small bore matches. The clubs will continue their shooting until deer season opens, when they will close down for the season.

Bilious Attack

By Dr. F. J. Dallal

The liver is to be regarded as a great poison filter for the entire body. So long as there is no interference with its nerve supply and function, it can deal with poisons as fast as they are formed, the body is safe and can remain healthy. But if the liver does not function properly, the poisons are not handled properly and we become "bilious". Our head aches, our tongue becomes coated, we have a bad taste in the mouth, we lose our appetite and feel stupid, dull and feverish.

Such waste products as the liver cannot burn down, so that the kidneys and skin can handle them it pours out through its duct into the intestine as bile. The bile is a yellowish brown fluid, which assists the pancreatic juice in the digestion of the food, and helps to dissolve the fats eaten. It is however chiefly waste product.

Besides being a great blood purifier the liver is a blood maker in the sense that it changes food stuffs in the blood from the intestines into forms which are more suitable for use by the brain muscles and other tissues of the body. Some of the sugars, for instance, the liver changes into a kind of animal starch (glycogen) which it stores away in its own cells. It also turns both sugars and proteins into fat, part of which it pours into the blood and part of which it stores away in its own cells.

The liver is very important in the network of organs of the body. Maintain its normal function by Chiropactic adjustments.

(One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropactic, written by Dr. Dallal whose office is located at Castroville, Texas.)

Crime Greatly Reduced By F. B. I., Agent Says

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has done much to reduce crime in the United States since its beginning in 1908, Fred McIntire, agent in charge of the San Antonio district, told the Hondo Lions Club last Wednesday.

The growth and efficiency of the bureau has been due largely to J. Edgar Hoover, who was appointed director in 1924 after the nation was shaken by the Teapot Dome scandal.

McIntire said that the F. B. I. was hampered by politics and graft prior to 1924, but has now become one of the most effective law enforcement agencies in the world. Shortly after Hoover took command, the best criminal laboratory and most extensive fingerprint files were started among other modern innovations.

As it exists today, the F. B. I. is also a good business investment, McIntire stated. Operating costs last year were about $60 million, although some $90 million was taken in.

One of the bureau's biggest undertakings today is the investigation of enemy aliens and citizens who act as agents for foreign governments. The F. B. I. started investigating our enemy agents in the late 1930's and were able to round up 1,700 of the more dangerous ones within 24 hours after the attack at Pearl Harbor. In a matter of weeks, about 17,000 subversives were under arrest, practically eliminating the threat of sabotage.

McIntire pointed out that the department didn't relax its efforts during the war, "even of our allies," and is continuing the vigilance.

With the passage of laws making some criminal acts a federal offense, the F. B. I. has been able to greatly reduce bank robberies and kidnappings. In 1934, prior to the changes in the law, there were 417 bank robberies and 400 kidnappings; in 1943, only 22 bank robberies were recorded and there are only two unsolved kidnappings on file.

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation work hand-in-hand with state and local officers, McIntire said. He stated that their success was often due to co-operation by other law enforcement officers on the local level.

WASHINGTON—The 15th district has been chosen as the site of initial guayule plantings—the start of a program aimed to make the United States an independent producer of natural rubber.

To initiate the program the President has asked the Congress to appropriate $2,307,000. The request is waiting action now by the House Appropriations Committee. Part of these funds will be used to extend dry planting of seedlings over 12,000 acres in La Salle and Rio Counties.

These seedlings come from seedlings harvested in Maverick and Zavala Counties, where approximately 550 acres were produced from 850 acres which were planted.

TEXAS INDUSTRY

Two important steps have recently been taken which should add impetus to the industrialization of Texas and a diversified economy.

First, the Interstate Commerce Commission has gone far toward righting a wrong dating back to some of the punitive measures taken against the South following the Civil War. Because the northeast manufacturers had an unfair freight rate advantage, the South's industrial production has been seriously hampered. Before this recent directive, a manufactured product could be shipped much cheaper from North to South than from South to North. Now this discriminatory freight rate has been removed on more than 20,000 manufactured items and southern industry can compete on a par with northern industry.

The second big step is one which will help insure the continued defense production of this country in the event of enemy attack and will also result to the economic betterment of the nation.

The President has, as a matter of administrative discretion, instructed government agencies to (1) grant certificates of necessity providing for accelerated tax amortization to the greatest extent practicable to facilities which meet executive dispersal standards; (2) give primary consideration to dispersal factors in locating facilities, built by the federal government; (3) award defense contracts in such a manner as to make maximum use of such facilities.

The order would and should discourage new construction in already congested areas. There are a multitude of reasons why cities often become inadequate or inefficient for modern production methods. Owing to housing shortages, workers may have to travel long distances to work. Construction costs and taxes are less in uncongested areas. We are rapidly learning that excessive concentration of industry adds greatly to the cost of defense and results in bonanza targets to an aggressor's bomber fleet.

We in Texas stand ready to enlarge our share of the nation's industrial production.

Industry in Texas makes sense.

The Seco Philosopher

J. A. WOULD TRY EXTRA SESSION FOR HELP IN WATER SHORTAGE

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is misconstruing the news again, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I was out here the other afternoon wonderin when it was gonna rain again. don't believe I ever saw a summer as hot and dry as this one has been, when I noticed a little whirlwind headin in my direction and since gettin a little dust ain't no worse than usin up a lot of energy trying to dodge the thing, I sat still and let it hit me and when it was past I noticed it had dropped a newspaper right at my feet and since I was sittin down and could reach it without any trouble I sorted it out from the trash, ain't no trouble to do at all when you've had experience, and picked it up and read where a Texas Representative is urg'in a special session of the Legislature to deal with the state's critical water shortage.

As I understand it, he wants to call the Legislature together to solve the water problem, and I'm all for it. My well has been gettin lower and lower and if the Legislature can do something about it, what are they waitin for?

Of course, there are a good many angles about the rain shortage I haven't figured out how the Legislature can help on, but when a man gets desperate he'll try anything, and if a special session is all that's standin between us and more water, I say call t right now.

While it's hard to see for example how the Legislature can help a place like Temple, where the city reservoir is gettin lower and lower and the city more worried and worried, it's possible that if the membership of both houses all piled in the reservoir at one time it would raise the water level, the same as droppin rocks in a fruit jar will send the water at the top. Although I guess technically speakin it don't really increase the total amount of water, although there might be some psychological advantage in seein the reservoir brim full, even if it meant having the entire Legislature at the bottom, except when they come up for air or to vote.

And also there may be some people who doubt the Legislature can have much effect on rainfall, but there are others who claim rain-makin and law-makin takes about the same amount of know-how coupled with wild guessin, and a special session might be the very thing. At any rate, you can't deny the Legislature certainly couldn't make the water situation any worse, and when a well gets as low as mine, a man likes to see some action. I'm callin on Rep. Briscoe to make raisin the water level in my well the first order of business, House Bill No. 1.

Yours faithfully,

water entered the town. Thanks to the elevation of the town, it escaped without any serious loss, nothing to compare with that of the farmers and stock men in the lower stretches of the valley.

A remarkable thing about this flood was that despite the property damage and heavy loss of live-stock, there was only one loss of human life, that of the boy mentioned by Mr. Jungman in his card.

And here is The Anvil's story: "But the saddest of all is the drowning of little Sam Bell, the twelve-year old son of Sam C. Bell of San Antonio. Mr. Bell, together with Fire-chief W. G. Tobin and their families, were enjoying an outing on the river about nine miles above the town of Castroville. About 8 A. M., Monday, little Sam and his cousin, Gerard Fraser, rode their horses into the river to water. The first flood caught them. Gerard's horse swam out with him but Sam's was washed against a tree and he was knocked off. One of the men of the party plunged in after Sam and together they got into a tree but the next wave knocked them out and it was with difficulty that the man saved himself. The boy got on a log and drifted down stream. Once he caught a limb but it broke with his weight and the last seen of him he was still clinging to the log and making a manful fight for his life. A wire message (by way of Hondo) brought a party of friends consisting of J. N. Vance, John W. Tobin and others, out on a special train and no effort is being spared to recover the body. Up to Thursday noon it has not been found. One hundred dollars reward is offered for its recovery."

All efforts to recover the body failed at the time, but after some two years or so, the skeleton of a child was found in a drifted gravel bed in the river some distance below where the boy had been last seen. The remains were gathered together and brought to the old courthouse in Castroville. Mr. Bell was notified and he and a party of friends came out from San Antonio and by means of a lock of the child's hair, and a patch on what remained of his overalls, the stricken father identified the remains as those of his son. The body was found by two sons of the late Armin Boehme when it was brought to their attention by their dog while they were hunting along the river.

In notes about the flood it is stated that:

"The water at Castroville reached a point 4 feet higher than the highest known, that of '69 and '70. It was ten feet higher than the rise of last April and was 3 feet and 7 inches in the gin house."

The following week, in the issue of July 27, 1900, from "Aftermath," a story of more about the flood, we quote:

"The unprecedented rise in the Medina which caused such destruction of property along the banks was caused by a heavy cloud-burst along the divide between the Medina and Guadalupe rivers. At Kerrville there was a rainfall of sixteen inches in twenty-four hours and the Guadalupe rose to a height of thirty-four feet, doing immense damage along its course.

"Had the rainfall all been on this side of the divide tremendous loss of life and property must have resulted. As it is the damage reaches thousands of dollars."

At Bandera, "the water was seven feet higher than the highest rise on record—that of 1869. The people there tried to telephone to Castroville to warn us of the coming flood but the telephone connection was broken."

And we closed this last article with this:

A BIT OF ANCIENT HISTORY

"It appears that this is not the first time that Castroville has had a flood visitation. In 1843 there was a Mexican settlement here. A white man by the name of Hy Arnold, who with his Mexican wife lived in a picket house on the present site of the 'Rival', had a camp on the present site of August Holzhaus' residence (just where the road coming down the river on its west side enters town) and was engaged in the manufacture of shingles for the San Antonio market. That portion of the present town was flooded and all his loose shingles floated away. The packed ones were gathered up from where they had drifted, and the pieces of his ox-cart were picked up from against the mesquite trees near the present Ihnken residence."

This particular bit of history was learned from the late Mrs. Charles de Montel, who as a fourteen-year old French girl, Justine Pingnot, came with her father and two younger brothers to Castroville in the spring of 1845 with the first women and children to join the settlers of Castro's colony, only two years after the above noted occurrence.

Since the construction of the Medina Dam in 1910-1912, Castroville has felt little fear of ever again being flooded. And now, in the presence of this terrible drouth, many doubt that the lake will ever again fill up!

But—just let it rain!

If You Plan to Fix Up a Study Area for Your Child...

DON'T overlook the importance of proper lighting. Poor illumination in the study area can cause eyestrain and all-around fatigue. A common result: less interest in school work and lower marks.

DO select a well-designed study lamp. To avoid tiring contrasts between light and dark, provide additional light from valances, ceiling or cornices. Be sure to add handy switches near entrances.

What are the Dollar Signs Saying?

MAYBE you've noticed that dollars don't seem to talk as loud as they used to in a lot of places.

But you ought to hear what they say about this Buick.

They say—here's the big thrill—big mileage—big power of a valve-in-head Fireball Engine—eight-cylinder performance at the price you'll pay for most sixes.

They say—here are size and room and comfort that are hard to match at anywhere near the price tag this Buick SPECIAL is wearing.

They say—here are such things as an oil filter, air cleaner, vacuum booster, built-in summer ventilation—not as "extras" but yours at no extra charge.

They say that "smart buy's Buick"—by a wide measure.

But a smart buyer will also let this dashing darling speak for itself.

He'll take the wheel and feel how it snugs to the road on turns—holds its course on the highway with big-car assurance.

He'll touch off the power of its Fireball Engine and get firsthand the lift of its nimble response.

And he'll find out how coil springs on every wheel level out what he thought were bumpy roads.

Want to know more? How about coming in first thing tomorrow?
